THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Introduction

Dear student,

Congratulations on getting to this point in this unique fall term! You are now far enough into the course to have a good sense of how things are going, and there's still time to make changes.

We are inviting you to complete this brief (< 10 minutes), anonymous, mid-course feedback survey as an important opportunity for reflection. Your responses will provide us with valuable information to enhance the delivery of the course. We will share the key outcomes of the survey with you, and discuss the changes we will make in response to your feedback.

Your participation in the survey by [enter date, time here] will be most useful.

Thank you very much for your time and participation.
